The RCI Mid-Atlantic Chapter's Educational Seminar for August 2010 is approaching! Our August meeting will include a joint meeting with VARP "Virginia Association of Roofing Professionals." We will have a full morning session dedicated to understanding the principles of roof drainage. During the afternoon sessions we will discuss understanding ANSI / SPRI ES-I and continue with a presentation on commercial roofing ventilation.

Roof Drainage, ANSI/ SPRI ES-1, and Commercial Roofing Ventilation

Course Description: The seminar will start with a presentation on roof drainage. The second morning session will be a continuation of the drainage program. The afternoon session will start an informative presentation on understanding ANSI/ SPRI ES-I. We will conclude the afternoon session with a presentation on commercial roofing ventilation.
